
CURRICULUM VITAE

JENNIFER MOORE

Professor of Law

University of New Mexico

School of Law

1117 Stanford N.E.

Albuquerque, NM 87131

(505) 277-5564

FAX (505)277-0068

moore@law.unm.edu

EDUCATION

Member, California State Bar (admitted July, 1988)

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL, CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS - J.D., 1987

- Written work: "The Impact of Civil Strife on the Rights of Refugees"
- Student Organizer, conference on "Refugee Asylum and Protection in the U.S." (April, 1985)
- Intern, Cambridge and Somerville Legal Services, Inc. (1985)
- Participant, Harvard-Berkeley Law School Exchange Program (1986-87).

AMHERST COLLEGE, AMHERST, MASSACHUSETTS - B.A., 1983, magna cum laude,

Member, Phi Beta Kappa

- Thesis: "Haitian Immigration to the U.S."
- Recipient, Psi Upsilon and Charles Hamilton Houston Prizes (1983)
- Class Speaker (Commencement, 1983)
- Summer Intern for U.S. Congressman Barney Frank (1983)
- Resident Counselor (1982-83)
- Participant, Semester in Kenya (1982)
- Member, College Council (1980-81)
- Organizer, "Women at Amherst" media project (1980-81)
- Member, Women's Chorus (1979-82).

Scholarships and Continuing Education

Fulbright Senior Scholar, University of Dar es Salaam Faculty of Law, Tanzania, 2002-03 (co-taught Public International Law; conducted research on refugee and human rights policy in Tanzania).

International Institute of Human Rights, Strasbourg, France, participant in Twentieth Study Session: "Human Rights, Democracy and Constitutions" (June-July, 1989).

Fluent in French, proficient in Spanish, working knowledge of Swahili; experience in Africa (1982, 1991-93, 1994, 2002-03, 2010, 2014, 2016-19, 2022) and Central America (1986, 1988, 1989).

EMPLOYMENT

UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO SCHOOL OF LAW, Albuquerque, NM (1995-Present)

PROFESSOR of LAW: Teaching courses in Contracts, Human Rights I and II, International Law, Practicum (Introduction to Legal Professionalism), Refugee Law, and Transitional Justice. Former Director of the Peace Studies Program at the University of New Mexico (2004-06) and Affiliated Faculty, UNM Master's Program in Latin American Studies (since 1995)

UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES WASHINGTON, D.C. (1993-95)

ASSOCIATE LEGAL OFFICER: Provided guidance to U.S. officials in the formation of refugee policies consistent with international legal standards; advocated for enhanced legal protections for refugee women and HIV-positive refugees; facilitated voluntary repatriation of refugees residing in the U.S.

UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES CONAKRY, GUINEA, WEST AFRICA (1991-93)

ASSOCIATE PROTECTION OFFICER: Promoted rights of Liberian and Sierra Leonean refugees in the Republic of Guinea.

C.U.N.Y. LAW SCHOOL AT QUEENS COLLEGE FLUSHING, NEW YORK (September-December, 1990)

VISITING PROFESSOR: Taught course in legal reasoning, writing and advocacy skills.

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW, MORGANTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA (January-June, 1990)

VISITING PROFESSOR: Offered courses in Public International Law and Immigration and Political Asylum Law.

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, NINTH CIRCUIT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA (September, 1988-September, 1989)

LAW CLERK, Office of Staff Attorneys: Wrote memoranda to assist disposition of appeals; inventoried appeal petitions.

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL DEFENSE PROJECT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA (September, 1987-July, 1988)

PROJECT COORDINATOR: Established project to develop humanitarian law defenses to deportation.

FATHER MORIARTY CENTRAL AMERICAN REFUGEE PROGRAM SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

LAW SCHOOL INTERN: Participated in representation of political asylum applicants (August, 1986-May, 1987) (June-August, 1985).

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA
(June-August, 1986)

SUMMER INTERN: Conducted field research on the protection of Salvadoran refugees in Honduras.

REFUGEE POLICY GROUP WASHINGTON, D.C.
(September, 1983-June, 1984)

RESEARCH ASSISTANT: Assisted in conference on refugee integration in the U.S. and in study of global early warning system.

CONSULTANCIES

WAR-TORN SOCIETIES PROJECT INTERNATIONAL GENEVA and CROATIA
(July, 2000)

CONSULTANT: Visited the capital, Zagreb, and various regions of Croatia as part of a mission team to assess the viability of a prospective WSPI post-conflict reconstruction program in Croatia. Interviewed numerous government officials, community organization staff and international agency representatives to discuss the viability of establishing an inclusive national dialogue on Croatian development priorities. Drafted analyses of: (1) the situation of refugees and displaced persons within Croatia and the former Yugoslavia; and (2) women's leadership in the peace movement.

UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES GENEVA, SWITZERLAND

(February - April, 1998)

CONSULTANT: Drafted discussion paper for UNHCR Division of International Protection exploring UNHCR response to trends in European law toward non-state agents of persecution.

PUBLICATIONS

Books

Women's Work: Building Peace and Justice in Grassroots Communities of Northern Uganda and Sierra Leone (forthcoming, University of Pennsylvania Press, 2024/2025).

Humanitarian Law in Action within Africa (Oxford University Press, 2012)

Refugee Law and Policy: A Comparative and International Approach (5th Edition, Carolina Academic Press, 2018; co-authors K. Musalo, R. Boswell and A. Daher) (one of three original co-authors of 1st Edition 1997 and all subsequent editions).

Book Chapters and Occasional Papers

“Engendering Peace and Justice after Armed Conflict: A Call for Qualitative Research among Women’s Community Networks (Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security Occasional Paper Series, 2016).

“Conceptualizing and Contextualizing Criminal, Historical and Social Justice in Africa” (book chapter in TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE IN POST-CONFLICT SOCIETIES IN AFRICA J.R. Stormes SJ, E O. Opongo SJ, P. Knox SJ, and K. Wansama SJ, eds., Paulines Publications, Nairobi, 2016).

“Protection against the Forced Return of War Refugees: An Interdisciplinary Consensus on Humanitarian Non-refoulement” (book chapter in Refuge from Inhumanity: War Refugees and International Humanitarian Law, Eds. David Cantor and Jean-Francois Durieux, Martinus Nijhoff, 2014).

“Whither the Accountability Theory: Second-Class Status for Third-Party Refugees as a Threat to International Refugee Protection,” from The Refugee Convention at Fifty: A View from Forced Migration Studies, edited by Van Selem, Kamanga, Morrison, Nadig, Spoljar-Vrzina and van Willigen (Lexington Books, 2003).

“Toward a More Responsive Sovereignty: Confronting Human Rights Violations through National Reconstruction,” from Effective Strategies for Protecting Human Rights, edited by David Barnhizer (Ashgate, 2001).

“The International Protection of Refugees: The Impact of Emergent Challenges on U.S. Law and Policy”, from Contemporary Practice of Public International Law, edited by Ellen G. Schaffer and Randall J. Snyder (Oceana Publications, Inc., 1997).

Articles, Opinion Pieces and Blogs

“Time for Cease-Fire amid Possible War Crimes” in Israel’s military operation in Gaza, Opinion Piece published in The Albuquerque Journal, December 17, 2023.

“Preserving Habeas Corpus for Asylum Seekers Just When They Need It Most,” American Constitution Society Blog [ACSblog], March 13, 2019, <https://www.acslaw.org/acsblog/preserving-habeas-corpus-for-asylum-seekers-just-when-they-need-it-most/>.

“Talking with Women about Community Healing in Uganda and Sierra Leone,” IntLawGrrls Blog Post (featuring voices on international law, policy and practice), August 3, 2016, <https://ilg2.org/2016/08/03/talking-with-women-about-community-healing-in-uganda-and-sierra-leone/>

“Demonizing Muslims Only Benefits IS,” Opinion Piece published in The Albuquerque Journal, Dec. 19, 2015.

“Freedom from Detention for Central American Refugee Families,” Oxford University Press (OUP) Blog post, August 17, 2015, <http://blog.oup.com/2015/08/freedom-from-detention-for-central-american-refugee-families/>.

“Deportations violate U.S., global laws: Mothers and children detained in Artesia deserve lawful, humane treatment,” Opinion Piece published in The Albuquerque Journal, Nov. 16, 2014.

“The Responsibility to Protect in the Ebola Outbreak,” Oxford University Press (OUP) Blog post, Sept. 22, 2014, <http://blog.oup.com/2014/09/responsibility-protect-r2p-west-africa-ebola-outbreak-pil/>.

“Humanitarian Protection for Unaccompanied Children from Central America,” Oxford University Press (OUP) Blog post, July 30, 2014, <http://blog.oup.com/2014/07/humanitarian-protection-international-law-central-america-children-pil/>

“Punitive Military Strikes on Syria Risk an Inhumane Intervention,” Oxford University Press (OUP) Blog post, September 2, 2013, <http://blog.oup.com/2013/09/syria-us-military-strikes-international-law-pil/>.

“Just Who Are Humanitarian Workers,” Oxford University Press (OUP) Blog post, August 19, 2013, in honor of World Humanitarian Day, <http://blog.oup.com/2013/08/world-humanitarian-day-workers-principles-pil/>.

“R2P= MDGs: Implementing the Responsibility to Protect through the Millennium Development Goals,” Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (Vol. 40, Nos. 1-3, 2012).

“The Alchemy of Exile: Strengthening a Culture of Human Rights in the Burundian Refugee Camps in Tanzania,” Washington University Journal of Law and Policy (Vol. 27, 2008).

“U.S. Funding Key to U.N.’s Darfur Mission” (opinion piece calling for U.S. action to end genocide in Darfur, Sudan), Albuquerque Journal, Wednesday, September 13, 2006.

“The Dance of the Universal and the Particular: Reconciling International and African Approaches to Refugee Protection” (forthcoming in symposium volume of proceedings of Rudolph C. Barnes Sr. Symposium on Legitimacy and Western & Non-Western Views of Human Rights, University of South Carolina School of Law, Columbia, SC, February 3, 2006).

“Third Anniversary of Iraq Invasion Sparks Dissent” (opinion piece calling for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Iraq), Albuquerque Journal, Saturday, March 25, 2006.

“Practicing What We Preach: Humane Treatment for Detainees in the War on Terror,” Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (Vol. 34, No. 1, Winter 2005).

“Collective Security with a Human Face: An International Legal Framework for Coordinated Action to Alleviate Violence and Poverty,” Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (Vol. 33, No. 1, Winter 2004).

“Senate Vote Should Reaffirm American Values” (opinion piece opposing Alberto Gonzales nomination as U.S. Attorney General), Albuquerque Journal, Wednesday, February 2, 2005.

“As U.N. ‘Negotiates,’ Sudan Genocide Rages” (opinion piece), Albuquerque Journal, Monday, December 6, 2004.

“Speaking Law to Power: Joan Fitzpatrick, 1950-2003” (obituary), Journal of Refugee Studies (Vol. 16, No. 4, December 2003).

“Whither the Accountability Theory: Second-Class Status for Third-Party Refugees as a Threat to International Protection,” International Journal of Refugee Law (Vol. 13, Nos. 1 & 2, 2001).

“From Nation State to Failed State: International Protection from Human Rights Abuses by Non-State Agents,” Columbia Human Rights Law Review (Vol. 31, No. 1, Fall, 1999).

“Restoring the Humanitarian Character of U.S. Refugee Law: Lessons from the International Community,” BERKELEY JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW (Vol. 15, No. 1, 1997).

“Simple Justice: Humanitarian Law as a Defense to Deportation”, 4 HARVARD HUMAN RIGHTS JOURNAL 11 (SPRING, 1991).

Book Reviews

Review of Conflict-Related Violence Against Women: Transforming Transition, by Aisling Swaine (review). Jennifer Moore. 41 Human Rights Quarterly 763 (August 2019).

Review of A Honduran Woman Speaks from the Heart, by Elvia Alvarado, 11 HARVARD WOMEN'S LAW JOURNAL 277 (Spring, 1988) (co-author J. Vogele).

CONTRIBUTIONS TO OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS

Discussion Paper, “Non-State Agents of Persecution as a Basis for Refugee Statuses” (as consultant for the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, drafted and submitted paper to UNHCR Division of International Protection, 23 April, 1998).

Sexual Violence Against Refugees: Guidelines on Prevention and Response (UNHCR, March 1995, Geneva) (drafted comments to 1994 Proposed Guidelines for UNHCR Headquarters, in capacity as UNHCR Associate Legal Officer, Washington, D.C.).

Immigration and Naturalization Service “Considerations for INS Officers Adjudicating Asylum Claims from Women” (Memorandum from Phyllis Coven, Office of International Affairs, U.S. INS to all INS Asylum Offices, May 26, 1995) (drafted UNHCR comments to 1994 Proposed INS Gender Considerations, in capacity as UNHCR Associate Legal Officer, Washington, D.C.).

UNHCR Protection Reports on the United States (1994, 1993) (drafted sections of two consecutive annual reports on the status of refugees in the United States, in capacity as UNHCR Associate Legal Officer, Washington, D.C.).

UNHCR Protection Reports on Guinea (1992, 1991) (drafted sections of two consecutive annual reports on the status of refugees in the Republic of Guinea, West Africa, in capacity as UNHCR Associate Protection Officer, Conakry, Guinea).

PRESENTATIONS

Teach-in on Israel/Palestine, the October 7 Hamas attack on Israel and the Israeli War on Hamas in Gaza. Provided perspective on the prohibition of indiscriminate attacks on civilians under the Geneva Conventions of 1949 and customary international humanitarian law. Panel co-sponsored by the Coalition for Transformative Justice and the ACLU-NM Student Organizations. UNM School of Law, November 1, 2023.

Hour on Ukraine. The Weekend with Terry Travis, KKOB Radio 93.3. Described the facts and human dimension of the refugee crisis in the Ukraine in the global context and in light of US refugee resettlement policy and commitments. Live broadcast at 9:00 AM on March 26, 2022.

The Inclusion of War-Affected Populations in Restorative and Transitional Justice. Presentation given to participants in the US Department of State International Leadership Program Regional Project for Africa. Sponsored by the Albuquerque-based Global Ties ABQ (formerly the Albuquerque International Visitor's Program. Seminar participants included parliamentarians, civil servants, and representatives of human rights NGOs and community organizations from twelve African and Caribbean countries, including Benin, Djibouti, Guinea, Haiti, Kenya, South Africa and Tanzania. March 24, 2022.

Voices of Ukraine UNM-ABQ Community Forum. Helped organize panel and community discussion on the humanitarian emergency in Ukraine in the aftermath of the Russian invasion and local initiatives to assist displaced Ukrainians. UNM Dane Smith Hall. March 24, 2022.

Teach-in on the Invasion of Ukraine. Provided perspective on the international law implications of Russia's invasion of Ukraine as part of student and faculty panel discussion. UNM School of Law. March 2, 2022.

"What Does It Mean to Be an Immigrant?" Led round-table discussion with members of the UNM Immigration Law Students Association and students visiting UNM from Silverton Middle School (Silverton, Colorado), UNM Law School, November 13, 2019.

"Peace in the Home, Peace in the Nation: Conceptions of Justice for Rural Women in Northern Uganda." Public lecture presented as part of lecture series entitled "Peacemaking in Africa," sponsored by the International Studies Institute, University of New Mexico, September 19, 2019.

"Conversations about Peace and Justice: Conducting Field Research in Rural Communities in Sierra Leone." Presentation to 160 seventh graders taking part in Model United Nations program at Albuquerque Academy, April 16, 2019.

"Human Rights and Peacebuilding in Africa in Historical Context." Presentation to students visiting UNM from Silverton Middle School (Silverton, Colorado), UNM Law School, December 13, 2018.

"The Role of Grassroots Women Peacebuilders in Africa." Presentation to the Presbyterian Women's Association, St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, Albuquerque, November 20, 2018.

"Women's Power, Men's Support: The Peace Mothers of Sierra Leone." Panel presentation of chapter draft from manuscript Women's Work: Building Peace and Justice in Post-Conflict Communities in Northern Uganda and Sierra Leone (under contract with Pennsylvania Press, forthcoming 2019). American Society of International Law, Transitional Justice and Rule of Law Interest Group, Works-in-Progress Workshop, NYC Bar Association, October 18, 2018.

"How the United States Ignores Immigration and Asylum Laws." University Showcase Interview with Megan Kamerick broadcast on KUNM Public Radio, August 17, 2018, available at https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/law_facultyscholarship/652/.

Guest Lectures to UNM School of Law International Law class on the topics of "International Human Rights Law" (March 1, 2018), "International Humanitarian Law" (April 12, 2018) and "International Rules Regarding the Use of Force (April 19, 2018)." International Law taught in Spring 2018 by UNM Adjunct Professor Ana Andic-Tomlinson.

Immigration Symposium co-sponsored by the UNM School of Law Federalist Society and Immigration Law Students Association. Participated on faculty panel responding to presentations by Douglas Bandow of the Cato Institute and Joaquin Sanchez-Leal of Instituto Legal. Remarks focused on the role of humanitarian response in the formulation of immigration and refugee policy. UNM School of Law. October 25, 2017.

Teach-in on the Trump Administration's Rescission of DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals). Participated in faculty panel discussion of the impact of the DACA rescission on our undocumented and documented students. UNM School of Law. September 14, 2017.

Know Your Rights in Immigration Enforcement Training sponsored by the UNM Sanctuary Campus Working Group. Participated in training session for UNM faculty, staff, students and the wider Albuquerque community on strengthening support and protection of our vulnerable students. Presentation focused on framing the essential values of a sanctuary campus. University of New Mexico Center for the Performing Arts. September 8, 2017.

"International and Constitutional Perspectives on U.S. Immigration Policy." Presentation on panel entitled "A Public Conversation on Immigration Policy," part of the Forum on Faith & Politics, St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, March 26, 2017.

"Human Rights and Constitutional Perspectives on President Trump's Travel Ban." Presentation on Teach-In Panel – "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry" or Fundamental Constitutional Conflict. UNM School of Law. January 31, 2017.

"A Bird's Eye View of Studying the Common Law," a mock class for prospective law students, weaving together core principles, of Criminal Law, Torts Law, the Law of Contracts and International law. UNM School of Law Open House, Bratton Hall, UNM, January 20, 2017.

"Asylum from Persecution by Non-State Actors: Upholding and Updating Refugee Protection." Moderator and co-organizer of panel sponsored by the AALS Section on Immigration Law. "Why Law Matters," 111th Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools. San Francisco, January 5, 2017.

"The Role of Creativity in Rebuilding a Life after Loss and Exile" – a response to Dr. Eleni Bastea's presentation entitled "Geographies of Loss" (respondent to featured speaker and UNM Regents' Professor of Architecture Eleni Bastea). UNM Speaker Series sponsored by Institute for International Studies. UNM School of Architecture and Planning October 31, 2016.

"Women's Work: Reconciliation, Livelihood and Accountability after Armed Conflict in Africa." Presentation on field research with rural women peacebuilders in Sierra Leone and Uganda. First in 2016-17 Speaker Series sponsored by UNM Feminist Research Institute (for recipients of FRI research grants). UNM Student Union Building, September 14, 2016.

"Navigating Regional and Linguistic Differences among Women in Sierra Leone's Rural Communities" (panel presentation, Faculty Roundtable on Studying Organizations, Language and Culture in Diverse Contexts), UNM Conference on Conducting Fieldwork under Complicated Circumstances (Zimmerman Library, April 21, 2016).

“Armed Conflict and Humanitarian Assistance for Refugees in Africa.” Presentation to students visiting UNM from Silverton Middle School, Silverton, Colorado, UNM, November 12, 2015.

“The Evolution of Transitional Justice Practice from Post-Dictatorship to Grassroots Social Transformation.” Panel presentation in joint class with Dr. Kathy Powers to UNM International Studies Class on Peace: Conflict to Reconciliation, October 29, 2015.

“Student Advocacy and Recent Litigation regarding the Detention of Central American Families.” Panel presentation on UNM School of Law Day of Action to End Family Detention, organized by the UNM Women’s Law Caucus and the UNM Association for Public Interest Law, October 21, 2015.

“Women and Peacebuilding in Uganda, Burundi, and Sierra Leone.” Panel presentation at workshop on Gender & Transitional Justice, convened by Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace & Security, Washington, DC, August 2, 2015.

“The Protection Needs of Central American Mothers and Children Detained in Artesia, New Mexico.” Panel presentation in Roundtable entitled “The Search for Options to Address the Unaccompanied Children at Our Border” during annual meeting of the Association of Public Policy and Management, Albuquerque Convention Center, November 7, 2014.

“Seeking Justice and Social Transformation after Armed Conflict: Lessons from Africa.” Lecture given as part of lecture series entitled “Modern Societies in Crisis: Global Challenges and Solutions,” sponsored by the International Studies Institute, University of New Mexico, October 22, 2014.

“Transitional Justice in Uganda, Burundi and Sierra Leone: criminal justice, social justice, historical justice framework.” Paper presentation on panel addressing Transitional Justice and Contextual Imperatives, at Conference on Transitional Justice in Post-Conflict Societies in Africa, convened by the Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relations, Catholic University of East Africa, Nairobi, Kenya, October 8, 2014.

Book Celebration to acknowledge publication of Humanitarian Law in Action within Africa (Oxford University Press 2012). Author’s remarks on researching and writing a comparative text on transitional justice in Uganda, Sierra Leone and Burundi, followed by panel presentation with UNM colleagues on using the text in inter-disciplinary classes, including Comparative Human Rights and Transitional Justice. University of New Mexico, January 30, 2014.

“Protection against the Forced Return of War Refugees: An Interdisciplinary Consensus on Humanitarian Non-refoulement.” Presentation at final plenary panel of international conference: Refuge from Inhumanity: Enriching refugee protection standards through recourse to international humanitarian law. Conference convened under the auspices of the Oxford University Refugee Studies Center and the University of London Refugee Law Initiative, All Souls College, Oxford University, February 12, 2013.

“Transitional Justice in Africa: A Comparative Approach.” Presentation to UNM Political Science workshop for faculty and graduate students on research in the field of international relations and human rights. University of New Mexico, September 21, 2012.

“The Role of Women in the Struggle for Human Rights.” Presentation given on the occasion of receiving Human Rights Awards from the Albuquerque Chapter of Church Women United (ecumenical women’s organization dedicated to social justice). St. Paul’s United Methodist Church, September 7, 2012.

“The Women who Remain: Gender, Displacement and Post-conflict Reconstruction.” Presentation at panel on the Expanding Horizon of Refugee Protection – Asylum Law, Humanitarian Law and Human Rights Law. Immigration Law Teachers Workshop, Hofstra University Maurice A. Deane School of Law, June 2, 2012.

“The Value of a Liberal Arts Education.” Keynote address, UNM Phi Beta Kappa Induction Ceremony, April 29, 2012.

“Criminal, Social and Historical Justice in African Countries Emerging from Armed Conflict.” Presentation at panel on Emerging Issues in International Law. 40th Anniversary Symposium of the Denver Journal of International Law and Policy, Ved Nanda Center for International & Comparative Law, Denver University Sturm College of Law, April 14, 2012.

“Talking about Africa: Linguistic Pluralism in Uganda, Sierra Leone and Burundi.” Presentation at World Language Expo, Ortega Hall, University of New Mexico, March 3, 2012.

“The Power of ‘Soft Law’ in Global Affairs.” Presentation to UNM Model United Nations Conference, University of New Mexico Student Union Building, February 16, 2012.

“The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Occupy Wall Street Movement.” Presentation at UNM Teach-In on the Occupy Wall Street and (un)Occupy Albuquerque movements, University of New Mexico Student Union Building, October 10, 2011.

“The Meaning of Reconciliation and Restorative Justice.” Discussion facilitation at screening of Fambul Tok, a film on the grassroots reconciliation movement in Sierra Leon, part of the Women, War and Peace film Series. University of New Mexico School of Law, October 4, 2011.

“The Role of Women and Men in Transitional Justice.” Panel presentation at screening of Pray the Devil Back to Hell, a film on the 2003 women’s peace initiative in Liberia, part of the Women, War and Peace film series. UNM Department of Anthropology, October 3, 2011.

“Reconciling the Prohibition against the Use of Force and the Norm of Humanitarian Intervention.” Panel presentation at program sponsored by the Albuquerque United Nations Association on “The Arab Pro-Democracy Uprisings: Is There a Responsibility to Protect?” University of New Mexico School of Law. June 18, 2011.

“Humanitarian Intervention and the General Prohibition against the Use of Force.” Guest presentation to Ms. Patricia Gardner’s Advanced Placement World History class. Albuquerque High School. May 13, 2011.

“Reconciliation and Restorative Justice in Sierra Leone.” Presentation to Adult Christian Education class. St. Andrew Presbyterian Church. April 10, 2011.

“Cultivating the Rule of Law: The Work of Grass-Roots Organizations in Sierra Leone’s Reconstruction.” Panel presentation at conference on REBUILDING SIERRA LEONE: CHANGING INSTITUTIONS AND CULTURE. University of South Carolina. Columbia, SC. April 1, 2011.

“Transitional Justice in Burundi, Uganda and Sierra Leone.” Presentation at UNM School of Law, sponsored by the International Law Students Association and the UNM chapter of the Albuquerque International Association, Albuquerque, NM, November 17, 2010.

“International Law and Conflict Resolution in Africa.” Facilitator of three workshops for New Mexico High School student leaders. New Mexico Association of Student Councils Spring Conference. Albuquerque High School, February 12, 2010.

“Asylum Roundtable.” Participant in expert consultation with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees on proposals for asylum and immigration law reform. Washington, DC, October 26-27, 2009.

“International Law and the Treatment of Guantanamo Detainees.” Panel presentation at Albuquerque Bar Association luncheon panel on the Guantanamo Bay Detention Center and U.S. Counter-Terrorism Policy. Albuquerque, NM, March 2, 2009.

“International Humanitarian Law and the Treatment of Civilians in Israel’s 2008-09 Military Incursion in the Gaza Strip.” Remarks made on occasion of community rally in support of humanitarian assistance for the people of Gaza. Albuquerque, NM, January 10, 2009.

“Primer on Asylum Law.” Guest presentation to Immigration Law Practicum class, offered by Adjunct Professors Jennifer Landau and Christina Rosado-Maher. Presentation provided comparative analysis between international legal protections for refugees and U.S. legislative provisions for relief from removal for individuals fleeing persecution, particularly women victims of domestic violence. UNM School of Law, October 30, 2008.

“Global Service to Displaced Persons: Legal, Medical and Humanitarian Challenges.” Presentation given at Global Health Conference sponsored by Physician Assistants for Global Health. UNM School of Medicine, October 18, 2008.

“The Role of Civil Society in the Movement to Abolish Genocide.” Panel presentation given on the occasion of Chapman Law School’s symposium on the 60th anniversary of the 1948 Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide. FROM AUSCHWITZ TO DARFUR: THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION AT SIXTY. Chapman University School of Law, Center for Global Trade & Development, Orange, California, March 13, 2008.

“The United Nations and Progress towards the Millennium Development Goals.” Presentation given at anti-poverty workshop organized by the New Mexico chapter of Bread for the World, launching a letter-writing campaign to Congressional representatives urging their support for the Global Poverty Act (H.R. 1302/S. 2433). Albuquerque, March 8, 2008.

“Restorative Justice and War Crimes against Civilians.” Commentator on panel entitled “One Hundred Years of the Law of War: A Report Card of Failures & Successes,” sponsored by the AALS International Law Section. Commentary explored the impact of the International Criminal Court's indictments of leaders of the Lords' Resistance Army on the peace process in Uganda. Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, New York City, January 4, 2008.

"Voices from Darfur: National Speaking Tour featuring Darfuri refugees." Introduced speakers Daoud Hari and Amal Allagabo, who shared their personal narratives of the genocide in Darfur, Sudan, its historical roots and opportunities for ending the violence. The tour was sponsored by the Save Darfur Coalition in Washington, DC, and hosted locally by 17 UNM co-sponsors, including UNM Law School, the UNM Peace Studies Program and the Black Law Students Association. Anthropology Lecture Hall, October 20, 2007.

"International Perspectives on Civil and Human Rights." Chair of panel exploring kinship between the struggle for civil rights in the United States and the struggle for human rights internationally. Chair's introductory remarks called for an expansive definition of human rights, encompassing protection from oppression and discrimination, as well as socioeconomic wellbeing and cultural survival. UNM Civil Rights Symposium "40 Years of Community Activism, 1967-2007: Civil Rights Reform, Then and Now." University of New Mexico, September 27, 2007.

"Working with Refugees in Africa with the United Nations." Visitor in UNM undergraduate seminar "International Careers" taught by UNM Ambassador-in-Residence Martin Brennan. Spoke with students about the professional, humanitarian, personal and familial aspects of working with the United Nations in refugee emergencies in Guinea, Rwanda and Tanzania from 1991 to 2003. Albuquerque, NM, April 10, 2007.

"How People Engage in Global Conversations." Moderator on panel addressing cross-cultural scholarship and activism in Africa. Panelists included former U.S. Fulbright scholars who work in the fields of AIDS prevention and agricultural development. Fulbright Association 29th Annual Conference, Marrakech, Morocco, November 5, 2006.

"Global Responses to the Genocide in Darfur: Peace & Security, Human Rights Protection and Humanitarian Assistance." Guest presentation to Dr. Christine Rack's "Peace & Conflict" class, Dane Smith Hall, University of New Mexico, U.N. Day, October 23, 2006.

"Genocide in Darfur: Legal, Social Justice, and Community Responses" Luncheon address following annual "Red Mass" ecumenical service conducted at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, offering guidance to lawyers and judges in their efforts to administer justice. Petroleum Club, Albuquerque, New Mexico, October 13, 2006.

"Responses to Terrorism through Military Intervention, Military Trials, Human Rights Advocacy and Humanitarian Assistance." Served as moderator and panelist on local panel that concluded UNM's participation in a nation-wide Virtual Teach In on Guantanamo Bay and the War on Terror. The Virtual Teach In was broadcast from Seton Hall Law School via the internet, and the afternoon panel was organized locally. Panelists included two UNM law students – a New Mexico National Guard member who had trained Iraqi police in Iraq and a Muslim from Pakistan who shared her impressions of September 11 from outside the United States, as well as a nurse-midwife who had recently worked for Doctors without Borders in Darfur, Sudan. My own panel presentation focused on the detention and potential military trials of over 400 foreign nationals in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and the recently enacted Military Commissions Act. UNM's participation in the Virtual Teach was co-sponsored by UNM Law School, the UNM Peace Studies Program and four law school student organizations. UNM School of Law, October 5, 2006.

“A Human Rights Perspective on Fascism and Other Forms of Violent Nationalism.” As member of panel on “Linguistic and Legal Insights on Fascism,” examined contemporary cases of militant and autocratic national movements including the Global War on Terror, the genocide in Darfur, Sudan and the civil war in Northern Uganda. Interdisciplinary Conference on Modernism—Fascism—Postmodernism, University of New Mexico, September 22, 2006.

“The Dance of the Universal and the Particular: Reconciling International and African Approaches to Refugee Protection.” As panelist, addressed the ways in which refugee and human rights norms are understood and applied in refugee camps in Tanzania. Rudolph C. Barnes Sr. Symposium on Legitimacy and Western & Non-Western Views of Human Rights, University of South Carolina School of Law, Columbia, SC, February 3, 2006.

“Human Rights, Human Security and Peace.” As panelist, addressed the relationship between civil-political and socio-economic rights under international law, and examined the global impact of armed conflict on hunger and disease rates, particularly in Africa. United Nations Day Commemoration, sponsored by the United Nations Association of the United States of America, Albuquerque Chapter, UNM Student Union Building, October 24, 2005.

“The Experience of Immigrants Detained as ‘Persons of Interest’ after Sept. 11, 2001.” Served as discussion facilitator at public viewing of documentary film “Persons of Interest” (directed by Alison Maclean and Tobias Perse). New Mexico Middle East Film Festival, Albuquerque, NM, October 10, 2005.

“Human Rights in the War on Terror.” As panelist, addressed the relevance of the 1949 Geneva Conventions, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the U.S. Constitution to the status and treatment of detainees in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, Iraq and Afghanistan. UNM Colloquium on “The Rule of Law in the War on Terrorism.” University of New Mexico School of Law, Albuquerque, NM, October 7, 2005.

“Children’s Rights under International Law.” Guest presenter in class on “Rights of the Child and Child Health: taught by Dr. Sherri Alderman, MD, MPH, UNM Medical School. Discussed the various human rights treaties and other instruments that promote the rights of children, including the Convention on the Rights of the Child, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Convention against Torture. Offered an approach to child advocacy that emphasizes the interrelationship between the integrity and basic dignity of children, their need for protection against forced recruitment, and their rights to education, health care and overall social welfare. Family Practice Building, UNM School of Medicine, University of New Mexico, September 19, 2005.

“The Sanctity of Human Life.” As panelist, explored humanitarian assistance, peacebuilding, human rights and economic justice as components of the right to life. Panel was third in a series of community dialogues on “Religion and Politics” sponsored by Ecumenical Voices for Democracy. Smith-Brascher Hall, Albuquerque Technical-Vocational Institute, September 18, 2005.

“Remembering the Golden Rule: Humane Treatment in the War on Terror.” Public address sponsored by UNM International Studies Institute lecture series “Human Rights in a Global Context.” Woodward Hall, University of New Mexico, September 14, 2005.

“UN Millennium Development Goals: Historical Opportunity for the United States to Commit To Fighting Poverty and Underdevelopment at Home and Abroad.” Remarks made at press conference commemorating “White Band Day” in support of the ONE Campaign to Make Poverty History, Knob Hill, Albuquerque, September 10, 2005.

“UN Millennium Development Goals: Human Security and Human Rights.” Keynote address to Annual Meeting of United Nations Association of the United States of America, Albuquerque Chapter. Albuquerque Peace and Justice Center, June 25, 2005.

“Teaching, Writing and Activism about Refugees, Human Rights and Peace.” Faculty profile, Board of Regents Academic/Student Affairs Committee Meeting. UNM Student Union Building, June 14, 2005.

“The Human Rights of Refugees in Africa.” Guest presenter, Open Mind lecture series, Temple, Albert, Albuquerque, May 19, 2005.

“Humane Treatment of Detainees in the War on Terror.” As panelist, addressed the treatment of detainees in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, Iraq and Afghanistan, and analyzed the continuing obligations of the United States under the Convention Against Torture and the Geneva Conventions of 1949. Sutton Colloquium on “Protecting Human Rights: A Global Challenge.” University of Denver College of Law, Denver, CO, April 9, 2005.

“Teaching, Preaching and Seeking Peace in Classrooms, Communities and Zones of Conflict.” As panel organizer and moderator, helped conceptualize and link the four panelists’ presentations on peace activism in various settings: applying economic theory to conflict and conflict resolution in Nepal (Dr. Alok Bohara, UNM Economics Dept.); supporting economic justice through community activism in Ghana (Dr. Okunor, UNM African-American Studies Program); practicing restorative justice within the historical peace church tradition (Pastor Anita Amstutz, Albuquerque Mennonite Church); and teaching high school students about non-violent movements for social change (Ms. Becky Gordon, Highland High School, Albuquerque). UNM Student Union Building, March 1, 2005. This panel was part of UNM’s First Annual Peace Fair: “Studying Peace at UNM: Thinking & Acting, Locally & Globally, sponsored by the UNM Peace Studies Program.

“The Rhetoric of Peace.” As guest presenter in Rhetoric & Civic Discourse class taught by Dr. Michelle Hall Kells, UNM Department of English, discussed language used in the peace, human rights and women’s movements. Offered a definition of peace that encompasses respect for human dignity, integrity, equality and self-determination; and guarantees of humane treatment and social welfare. Dane Smith Hall, University of New Mexico, March 28, 2005.

“Martin Luther King, Jr. on Equality, Social Justice and Forgiveness.” Speaker at MLK Commemorative Celebration 2005, sponsored by the UNM African American Studies Program and the MLK State Commission. UNM Alumni Chapel, January 21, 2005.

“The Impact of the War on Terror on the Human Rights of Civilians and non-Civilians.” As panel moderator, discussed the complementary relationship between human rights law and humanitarian law in requiring the humane treatment of all individuals detained in the war on terror. UNM School of Law, November 16, 2004. Law School panel was part of the UNM International Symposium on Terror and Human Rights, a weeklong conference organized by the UNM Office of International Programs and Studies.

“AIDS Advocacy in the International Arena.” Guest presenter in Professor Carol Suzuki’s AIDS and the Law seminar. Provided overview of various international human rights instruments that recognize the right to health care, including education, prevention and treatment, with a focus on possibilities for creative advocacy on behalf of people living with HIV/AIDS. UNM School of Law, November 11, 2004.

“Burundian Refugees in Tanzania.” Presenter at International Initiatives Luncheon sponsored by UNM Office of the Provost. UNM Student Union Building, September 17, 2004.

“Reflections on the Rwandan Genocide: Violence and Reconciliation,” a presentation on the occasion of UNM commemoration of the 1994 Rwanda Genocide, sponsored by the UNM A.F.R.I.C.A. Organization (Africa’s Friends Reaching the International Community for Africa) and the Law & Society Organization of the UNM School of Law. Casteller Hall, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, April 7, 2004.

“Prosecuting Saddam Hussein: International Criminal Trials and the Rule of Law:” co-presentation with colleague Prof. Norman Bay before UNM Law Faculty. Discussed alternative models for establishing an international criminal tribunal, whether through multilateral treaty, bilateral treaty, U.N. Security Council resolution, United Nations transitional authority or domestic law. Albuquerque, March 9, 2004.

“Human rights and international legal implications of U.S. involvement in Haitian coup.” As member of teach-in panel organized by UNM Law and Society Organization, focused on the role of the opposition movement in the departure of Aristide. UNM School of Law, Albuquerque, NM, March 8, 2004.

“Collective Security with a Human Face.” As member of panel on “Changing Perspectives on Security,” addressed the inter-dependence of military security, human rights and socioeconomic development. Sutton Colloquium on Collective Security and the U.N. University of Denver College of Law, Denver, CO, February 28, 2004.

“Prosecuting Saddam Hussein: International Criminal Trials and the Rule of Law.” Made presentation to Albuquerque and Santa Fe Inns of Court. As co-presenter with colleague Prof. Norman Bay, discussed alternative models for an international criminal trial, including the ad hoc tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda, and the hybrid tribunals established in Sierra Leone, East Timor and Kosovo. Albuquerque, January 20, 2004 and Santa Fe, January 21, 2004.

“Human Rights: the Inter-relationships between Civil-Political and Economic-Social Rights.” Made guest presentation to UNM Public Health School class entitled “Economic, Social and Cultural Rights: A Public Health Perspective.” UNM School of Medicine, Albuquerque, October 30, 2003.

“UN Reform: Has the Time Come?” Participated in local commemoration of United Nations Day (co-sponsored by the Albuquerque Chapter of the United Nations Association and the UNM International Law Students Association). As respondent to keynote address by Dr. Ved Nanda of the University of Denver School of Law, stressed the need for US citizens and non-governmental organizations to demand a renewed commitment on the part of the United States to multilateral cooperation under the framework of the United Nations and a rejection of the unilateral use of force. St. Thomas Catholic Center, Albuquerque, October 23, 2003.

“Africa in Peril: Cooperation or Calamity.” Participated in local commemoration of World Food Day (co-sponsored by Church World Service, Bread for the World and the New Mexico Department of Children, Youth and Families). As panelist, discussed the work of the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees in Africa; the inter-related problems of political repression, armed conflict, refugee movements and hunger; and the importance of linking anti-poverty and anti-hunger work with efforts to fight AIDS, stop the small arms trade and negotiate peace agreements. Albuquerque Technical and Vocational Institute (TVI), October 17, 2003.

“Hunger in Africa, Human Rights and Armed Conflict.” Made guest presentation at monthly meeting of Bread for the World local chapter. Albuquerque Friends Meeting House, May 17, 2003.

“A Teach-In on the War in Iraq and its Consequences.” As participant in a panel organized by the UNM American Studies Department, discussed the humanitarian and human rights dimensions of the Iraq war. UNM, Albuquerque, April 22, 2003.

“U.S. Policy and the Impacts of War: A Teach-in on Iraq.” As panel participant, discussed the humanitarian dimensions of a war against Iraq, particularly the effects on human beings and emergency resources. UNM Law School, Albuquerque, March 12, 2003.

“The Humanitarian Impact of the War in Afghanistan.” As panel participant, discussed refugee movements within, to and from Afghanistan since September 11, 2001; and addressed the applicability of the Geneva Conventions to both civilian deaths in Afghanistan and the treatment of suspected Taliban and Al Qaeda detainees in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. National Lawyers Guild Southwest Regional Conference, Taos, New Mexico, February 23, 2002.

“Living Afterwards: Words of Women” (stories of survivors of the Bosnian war). Human Rights Watch International Traveling Film Festival screening, sponsored by the UNM Women’s Health and International Health Interest Groups. Led discussion on the relationship between individual healing and social reconstruction in the aftermath of political violence in the Balkans and other conflicted regions of the world. UNM School of Nursing and Pharmacy, Albuquerque, February 6, 2002.

“Teach-in on Crimes, War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity.” As panel participant, defined war crimes and crimes against humanity in the context of the U.S. military intervention in Afghanistan and its ongoing impact on civilians. UNM Law School, Albuquerque, October 24, 2001.

“Refugee Crisis in West Africa.” Presentation sponsored by Bread for the World, a non-profit advocacy group that promotes U.S. humanitarian assistance to developing countries. Remarks focused on the civil wars in Liberia and Sierra Leone and their humanitarian impact on Guinea from 1989-2001. St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, Albuquerque, October 20, 2001.

“International Human Rights Law.” Guest presenter in Professor Sherri Burr’s International Law class. Provided overview of international human rights and criminal law, with a focus on the broadening classes of individuals who are protected by modern human rights law, and the various civil and criminal mechanisms for holding both states and individuals accountable for human rights violations. UNM School of Law, October 19, 2001.

“Another Day of Infamy.” Participant in Channel 5 live call-in show, “In Focus,” moderated by Arcy Chapa, on responses to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Other participants included

Mayor Jim Baca of Albuquerque, Dr. Charlie Clements, past President of Physicians for Human Rights, Martha Dominguez, local independent media activist, Dr. Mo Jamshidi of the UNM Department of Electrical Engineering, and Kurt Lodec, former journalist in Afghanistan. KNME Studio, September 21, 2001.

“Public Forum on Recent Terrorist Attacks.” Moderator and organizer of teach-in on humane responses to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Panelists included Professor Tim Canova of the Law School, Ali El-Osery, UNM Ph.D. candidate in engineering, Drs. Gregory Gleason and Mark Peceny of the UNM Political Science Department, Dr. Mo Jamshidi, of the UNM Electrical Engineering Department, and Emily Stafford, licensed mental health counselor from La Familia Counseling Center. Event sponsored by UNM School of Law, September 19, 2001.

“Security in the Wake of Violence: Where do we go from here?” Participant in panel discussion on responses to the terrorist attacks on the United States of September 11, 2001. Remarks focused on U.S. humanitarian law obligations not to target civilians in Afghanistan, and the potential for the development of more humane U.S. foreign and economic policy towards the developing world. Event sponsored by the Los Alamos Study Group, a non-profit organization promoting disarmament. UNM Continuing Education Building, September 13, 2001.

“Global Perspectives on Women’s Issues.” Participant in panel discussion on women’s human rights and international strategies for improving women’s access to reproductive health care and reproductive freedom. Event sponsored by seven local, state and national organizations, led by Planned Parenthood of New Mexico. Other panelists included Dr. Charlie Clements, past President of Physicians for Human Rights, and Dr. Selena Sermenon, psychologist and specialist in the treatment of trauma caused by political repression. UNM Law School, January 30, 2001.

“Whither the Accountability Theory: Second-Class Status for Victims of Non-State Persecution as a Threat to International Refugee Protection.” Presentation of paper at biannual conference on “The Refugee Convention at 50” sponsored by the International Association for the Study of Forced Migration, Johannesburg, South Africa, 8-11 January 2001. Also served as discussant for panel on “Ethics and Perceptions in Refugee and Security Policy” at the same meeting.

“Human Rights and the Practice of Law: Making International Law a Tool for More Effective Advocacy.” Organizer, moderator and panelist for CLE seminar sponsored by the Albuquerque Bar Association, Albuquerque, NM, November 7, 2000. Prior to CLE, responsible for selecting panelists, developing topics and assembling materials. During CLE, introduced panelists, integrated presentations and provided initial “Overview of Sources of International Law and the Relationship Between U.S. and International Law.”

“The Role of Women in Conflict Resolution in Croatia.” Presentation sponsored by the Women’s Law Caucus of the University of New Mexico School of Law, Albuquerque, NM, October 18, 2000.

“Toward a More Responsive Sovereignty: Confronting Human Rights Violations through Humanitarian Intervention and National Reconciliation.” Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Symposium on Practical Strategies for Human Rights Protection, Cleveland, Ohio, April 14, 2000.

“The Protection of Victims: Asylum and Non-Refoulement as Instruments of Human Rights Enforcement.” Cleveland-Marshall Symposium on Practical Strategies for Human Rights Protection, Cleveland, Ohio, April 15, 2000.

- “Race and Immigration Law.” Moderator of panel on inter-connections between ethnicity and U.S. immigration policy at UNM Law School’s first annual Race Judicata Conference on Race and the Law, Albuquerque, NM, March 8, 2000.
- “The Moral and Legal Implications of Humanitarian Intervention in Kosovo.” UNM Law School Teach-In on the War in the Balkans, Albuquerque, NM, April 22, 1999.
- “From Nation State to Failed State: Human Rights Law Post Partum.” Stanford University Conference on Cosmopolitanism and Nationalism, Stanford, CA, April 16, 1999.
- “The Impact of International Human Rights Law on Sovereign Immunity.” H. Vearle Payne Inn of Court forum on the Pinochet Extradition Case, Albuquerque, NM, February 17, 1999.
- “The International Protection of Refugees: The Impact of Emergent Challenges on U.S. Law and Policy.” American Association of Law Librarians Summer Institute on the Contemporary Practice of International Law, Bloomington, IN, July 18, 1996.
- “The Role of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in International Refugee Protection and Assistance.” Albuquerque United Nations Organization forum, Albuquerque, NM, June 26, 1996.
- “Gender Issues in Refugee Law.” Amnesty International (University of New Mexico Chapter) forum, Albuquerque, NM, March 29, 1996.
- “The Right to Asylum: The International Dimensions of U.S. Refugee Law.” Boalt Hall School of Law Symposium on “Practicing and Preaching: The U.S. and International Human Rights Law,” Berkeley, CA, March 16, 1996.
- “International Humanitarian Law and Refugee Protection.” University of California Hastings College of Law conference on “Human Rights: What Next?” San Francisco, CA, January 28, 1989.
- “U.S. Asylum Law.” Guest lecturer at Brown University class on “The Anthropology of Refugees,” Providence, RI, October 24, 1985.
- “Refugee Law.” Smith College conference entitled “Toward a Sociology of Exile,” Northampton, MA, May 2-4, 1985.

(the following presentations were delivered during my service as UNHCR Legal Officer)

- “Reproductive Health in Refugee Situations.” U.S. Department of State forum on the impact of population movements on reproductive health, Washington, D.C., April 26, 1995.
- “Rights and Non-Citizens.” Harvard Law School conference on “The Right to Have Rights: A Discussion Between Political Philosophers and Lawyers,” Cambridge, MA, April 8, 1995.

“Developments in Refugee Law.” Lawyers Committee for Human Rights asylum training, Washington, D.C., March 30, 1995.

“Human Rights Advocacy and Protection in the New World Order.” Guest lecturer at Georgetown University Law Center International Human Rights Workshop (Professors Vazquez and Bloche), Washington, D.C., January 20, 1995.

“A Field Perspective on the Implementation of the UNHCR Guidelines on the Protection of Refugee Women.” Women’s Commission for Refugee Women and Children consultation, Washington, D.C., January 12, 1995.

“The World’s Refugee Crisis.” New York City Bar Association International Law Weekend, New York City, October 28, 1994.

“The Protection of Vulnerable Groups and the Role of Resettlement.” UNHCR consultation with non-governmental organizations, Washington, D.C., September 9, 1994.

“International Refugee Law.” San Francisco Lawyers’ Committee for Urban Affairs asylum training, San Francisco, CA, June 2, 1994.

“International Refugee Law.” Annual Immigration Judges Conference, San Francisco, CA, June 1, 1994.

“The Evolution of UNHCR Policies on the Protection of Refugee Women and Children.” International NGO Working Group on Refugee Women forum (in preparation for the Third International Conference on Women), New York City, March 4, 1994.

“The Legal Protection of Refugee Children.” Women’s Commission on Refugee Women and Children conference on unaccompanied refugee minors entitled “Robbed of Childhood,” Catholic University, Washington, D.C., January 22, 1994.

“The Historical Roots of Refugee Protection.” U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service training for Haiti in-country refugee processing officers, Washington, D.C., December 14, 1993.

“The Interrelationship Between International Refugee and Humanitarian Law in the African Context.” International Committee of the Red Cross Humanitarian Law Trainings, Conakry, Guinea and Bamako, Mali, West Africa, Spring, 1992.

HONORS AND GRANTS

Regents’ Professor (Fall 2022 to present)

Pamela Minzner Chair in Professionalism (awarded in Fall 2019)

Weihofen Professorship, 2014-16

Ron and Susan Friedman Award for Faculty Excellence (awarded in Fall 2012)

Human Rights Award, Church Women United, Albuquerque Chapter, 2012

Regents Professor of Law, 2011-12

Kelleher Professorship, 2006-08

Member, Martin Luther King, Jr. Collegium of Scholars, Morehouse College (April, 2004)

Fulbright Scholar, University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, 2002-03 (recipient of lecturer/researcher grant to study Tanzanian refugee and human rights policy and to teach refugee and human rights law at the UDES Faculty of Law)

Henry Weihofen Lectureship in Law, UNM School of Law, 2001-02

Recipient, Law School Alumni/ae Award for Teaching Excellence, UNM School of Law, 1999-2000

Regent Lecturer in Law, UNM School of Law, 1997-98

Summer Faculty Research Grant Recipient, UNM School of Law, 1996-2019 (with occasional gaps for sabbaticals or leaves of absence)

PROFESSIONAL, ACADEMIC and ADVOCACY ORGANIZATIONS

Member, American Bar Association

Member, Immigration Law Section of Association of American Law Schools

Member, State Bar of California (admitted in 1987)

Member, National Lawyers Committee on Human Rights, advisory committee to Peace Brigades International (since 2010)

Member, Editorial Board, Hekima Journal of Peace Studies & International Relations, Hekima College, University of East Africa, Nairobi, Kenya (since 2015)

SERVICE

University of New Mexico

Member, Interdisciplinary Committee on Latin American Studies, University of New Mexico (since 2022)

Associated Faculty, Masters in Latin American Studies Program, University of New Mexico (since 1995)

Director, Peace Studies Program, University of New Mexico (2004-Fall 2006)

Member, Provost's Promotion, Retention and Tenure Committee, 2019-2020

Member, Advisory Committee to UNM Global Education Office, 2019-2020

Member, UNM (main campus) Interdisciplinary Committee on Latin American Studies, 2021-2022

Member, Dissertation Committee for Mahtab Shafiei, candidate for PhD in Political Science (2020-2023)

Member, Committee on Studies for Fiorella Bran Aragon, candidate for Masters in Latin American Studies (2020-2021).

Member, Committee on Studies for Hannah Miller, master's candidate in Public Policy (2021-2022).

Member, Committee on Studies for Dominic Baca, candidate for Master in Latin American Studies (2020-2022).

Member, Tenure Committee of Assistant Prof. Sarita Cargas, Honors College (beginning in 2013)

Member, Contemporary Islam search committee (evaluated candidates for joint hire in Religious Studies and Foreign Languages and Literatures; January-February 2006)

Volunteer, Arts and Medicine Program – performed folk music with UNM SOL colleague Sergio Pareja in various venues at UNM Hospital (2005-09)

Graduate Studies Committee Member, Renee Wolters (completing M.A. in Latin American Studies in May, 2007) and Victoria Teerlink (completed M.A. in Latin American Studies at UNM in July, 1999) and various students from 1999-2022.

University of New Mexico School of Law

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (January 2004 to June 2005)

Member, Committee on Promotion and Tenure (2020-2023)

Chair, Honors & Awards Committee (2014-15; 2023-24)

Chair, Curriculum Committee (2005-2006, Fall 2006, 2007-09)

Co-Chair, Curriculum Committee (2001-2002, 2003-2005)

Member, Curriculum Committee (1999-2000, 2000-01, 2009-2011)

Chair, International Programs Committee (2021-22)

Member, International Programs Committee (2005-06, Fall 2006, 2007-2011, 2011-2012, 2012-2013)

Coach, UNM School of Law Jessup International Law Moot Court Team, 2021-22

Judge, Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition practice rounds, UNM Law School (1996, 1997, 1999-2002, 2003-08, 2020-2021)

Advisor, UNM School of Law National Law's Guild Chapter, 2020-23

Advisor, UNM School of Law International Law Society, 2021-24

Chair, Student Affairs Committee (1997-98, 1998-99, 1999-2000)

Member, Student Affairs Committee (2010-2011)

Member, Admissions Committee (2012-2013)

Member, ad hoc Committee on Law School Tenure and Promotion Policies (2013-14)

Member, Library Director Search Committee (Spring 2015)

Faculty participant, oral history project on women and the transformation of the legal profession in New Mexico (Spring 2011) (interviewed on April 8, 2011 by UNM law student Benedetta Bozzo on my experience as a woman in the legal profession for class taught by Professor Antoinette Sedillo Lopez; video and transcript of interview will become part of public archive at UNM Law Library)

Faculty sponsor, Run for Darfur (student-organized fund-raiser for humanitarian assistance in Darfur, Sudan, in which 7 UNM SOL marathon relay teams ran in the Duke City Marathon, Albuquerque, October 2007)

Member, Teaching Effectiveness Committee (2000-2001)

Member, Student Self-Study Subcommittee (1999-2000)

Member, Faculty Appointments Committee (1997-1998)

Member, ad hoc Rodey Scholarship Committee (1996, 1997, 1998, 1999)

Faculty Advisor/Reader, independent studies/papers in satisfaction of the advanced writing requirement (R. Nguyen [3L, 2007], R. Shreve [3L, 2007], R. Hurley [2L, 2001], C. Collins [2L, 2001], M. Keen [3L, 2000], J. Skidmore [3L, 2000], D. Reyes [3L, 1999], T. Brooks, D. Cartran, B. Gillia, S. Thompson [3L's, 1996-97], C. Servan [2L, 1995-96])

Faculty Advisor, independent study on South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission (A. Skogen, [2L, 1997-98])

Faculty Advisor, Student Curriculum Design Awards (follow-up to Spring 1996 Workshop on Tolerance) (1996-97)

Organizer, UNHCR training on asylum and resettlement, UNM Law School, November 26, 1996

Community Service

Board of Directors, Enlace Comunitario, an advocacy and service organization dedicated to ending domestic violence and empowering survivors in the immigrant community (2021-2024)

Parent Volunteer – periodic presentations on Africa for my two daughters’ preschool and elementary school classes at Escuela del Sol Montessori (1996-99), Montezuma Elementary (2000) and Monte Vista Elementary (2007-2008).

Board Member, Albuquerque Border City Project (an immigrant rights organization) (1996-98)

ABC Board Liaison, UNM Law School Community Lawyering Clinic (involving UNM law students in ABC’s work representing battered immigrant women in their petitions for legal residency in the United States) (1997-98)

Member, Committee on Personnel and Pastoral Relations, St. Andrew Presbyterian Church (2002-04)

Member, St. Andrew Choir (since 2013)